STATE LIBRARY,
ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1877.

J. EDW. SABIN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: In a printed report on the N. Y. State Library, to appear in January, I have inserted the paragraph: "Mr. Sabin is publishing in New York a 'Dictionary of Books on America,' and of those by American authors. The work as far as printed will amount to the worst Hun, and already makes eight volumes, showing that the work will make twenty-five such volumes, a larger catalogue than any now extant." A few such facts illustrate the extent potentially of a library peculiarly American.

The paragraph was not written with any other view than what is implied in the sentence. I would like, therefore, to add farther, that as your undertaking in its comprehensiveness and minuteness of detail as regards American books is unique, its utility to all librarians and students of American history will be such as to make it desirable to them in their pursuits. And I hope you may live to complete it, and to augment it with a Subject-Index. Faithfully and sincerely yours,

H. A. HOMES.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY,
BALTIMORE, January 29th, 1878.

MR. EDW. SABIN: I cheerfully comply with the request in your note of yesterday. We are glad to have the new subscribers to Sabin's "Dictionary of Books relating to America." We are glad to try to help, in our small way, so laudable an effort to perpetuate the knowledge of books relating to this country. Before the Dictionary was published the second edition was the work of two or three hours, and, when published, it was a poor, unimproved, little service, as nearly all library catalogues lack two things, an exact title and collation. I have used the Dictionary since its publication, and since the first number, I have examined every item, and corrected it, and since then, to the last published, at least four times, and can say that it is a most valuable and invaluable; there is no work in English that is more useful to me, and I have often tested its accuracy in collations, and found it correct. That the Dictionary has its faults no one can deny, but, when numbered from what a vast territory and from what a vast number of persons, the wonder is that the errors are not more numerous. I have been of great service in my searches for books, and in my work as Librarian. I have found many titles recorded that would have escaped me otherwise. The work has been completed, with the index, I know of no other work of the kind.

Very truly yours,

JOHN W. M. LEE, Librarian Mercantile Library and Maryland Historical Society.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8, 1877.

DEAR SIR: I have just received your note, and I am glad to hear that your work, which I have no doubt will be of great value and importance, will be published. I am sure that it will be a most valuable and indispensable in every library. I have no doubt that you have a right to be proud of it—and if you are so fortunate as to be the author of it, it will pay you to have it published. I am, Sir, very truly yours,

Geo. H. Moore.

JOHN W. M. LEE, Librarian Mercantile Library and Maryland Historical Society.

I have just received your note, and I am glad to hear that your work, which I have no doubt will be of great value and importance, will be published.

The collation or arrangement varies in some copies; I have seen one with pp. xii, 502; xvi, 568; (2), iv, 400, 154. Probably extracted from the following:

Mémoires des Commissaires du Roi et de ceux de sa Majesté Britannique, Sur les possessions & les droits respectifs de deux Couronnes en Amérique; Avec les Actes publics & Pièces justificatives. Contenant les Mémoires sur l'Acadie & sur l'île de Sainte-Lucie. A Paris, de l'Imprimerie Royale. M.DCCCLV-LVII. 4 vols., 4to, pp. viij, lxxv, 181, 61, cvij, 120; xiiij, 646; xvj, 319; (6), xxv, 654. 3 Maps. + Paris. M.DCCCLVI. 6 vols., 12mo, pp. viii, 321; vi, 363; vi, 278; vii, 331; x, 335; xxi, 438. Map.

The fourth volume (1757, of the first-mentioned edition) of this valuable work is very scarce, and seldom found with the others. "An invaluable collection of official papers and documents."—HOLMES' Annals. "The authors of these memoirs were MM. de Silhouette, de la Galissonière, and particularly the Abbé de la Ville, an ex-Jesuit."—BARBIER. The English commissioners were Messrs. W. Shirley and Wm. Mildmay. It is an interesting collection, the English documents, with translations, being given as well as the French ones. There is a continual examination and discussion of the early maps and geographers, and of books of travel in North America. For a translation, in part, see "Memorials of the English and French," 47741, infra.

D. Diego Carillo de Mendoza y Pimentel, twenty-fourth viceroy of Peru, assumed his title September, 1621. He was cruel and passionate. The disputes which he had with the archbishop Juan Perez de la Serna, of a no less violent temper than that of the viceroy, caused a rebellion to break out January, 1624, which obliged the viceroy to retire to the convent of S. Francisco, from where he embarked for Spain at the end of 1624.

Of this important work only four hundred and twenty copies were printed, of which twenty-six are on fine paper. It had slumbered in ms. for two hundred and fifty years, when the eminent Mexican scholar and archæologist Señor Icazbalceta brought it to light. Its importance can scarcely be overestimated. Mendieta was sent to Mexico in 1554, and remained there till 1571, having spent much of his time in the study of the Mexican languages. Torquenada evidently had access to the ms., for he has reproduced a large portion of it without giving credit to Mendieta.

C. 47817

"This very earnest book is substantially a defense of the Jesuits, and their conduct and usefulness in all parts of the world. The author gives a list of above one hundred and seventy authors whom he quotes, many of them bearing testimony to the valuable services of the Order as missionaries among the heathen of both hemispheres, strongly fortified by many historical allusions to services in the new world from the time of the entrance of the Dominicans into Mexico in the time of Cortes."—STEVENS.

"A splendid work bearing the highest testimony to the learning and labour of the editors. The latest geographical discoveries are incorporated in this work, and contributions by the best authorities in each country are used. It is the first Atlas containing anything like a fair description of the now United States; the settlements of the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth, the establishment of James' City, and the position of Fort Orange and New Amsterdam (the future city of New York), being all clearly laid down, although then but a few years in existence. It is interesting to observe the records on the map of New England, of the recent English investigations. Besides the general map of the world, there are seventeen special maps for America and its parts. A voyage from Bermuda to Ireland in an open boat, by five Englishmen, is noticed as an unprecedented fact."—QUARITCH.

MERCATOR. Atlas ou Représentation du Monde universel et des parties d'icelui; faites en tables et descriptions très amples et exactes. Amsterdam. 1633-39. 3 vols., folio. 47884

"In many respects a better edition than the Latin. The text is only in part a translation, and contains a great number of details omitted in the Latin issue. It is evidently the work of a superior hand, and in many places disagrees in judgment from the statements of the other edition; as, for instance, may be observed in the remarks on Seneca's prophecy about America. The text to the general map of America is also quite different. There is in this edition a notice of the Pilgrim Fathers' voyage, and the founding of the town of Plymouth, which does not appear in the Latin one. Again, Smith's adventures in Virginia are not alluded to in the latter, while they are in the French copy."—QUARITCH.

Regin. Oxoniæ. | London | Printed by T. Cotes, for Michael Sparke and | Samuel Cartwright. 1635. Folio, pp. (24), 56, (2), 930, (32). 191 Maps.* c. 47885

The buyer should be careful to secure a copy of the second issue with the rare map of Virginia and New England, engraved by Ralph Hall in 1636, which is seldom found in the book, and a portrait of Captain John Smith, by Pass. All the copies were issued with simply a duplicate of the map of New Spain impressed opposite the text to Virginia, this being mentioned in the errata with a statement that a correct map of New England was then being prepared in America, which would be published on its arrival in England. Sometimes the map of New England from Smith's "Virginia" is substituted. A change of owners took place two years after the first publication, and the frontispiece was re-engraved, having Sparke's name alone, with "Second Edytion" added, and the date changed.

Mercurio Peruano de Historia, Literatura, y Noticias públicas que da á luz la Sociedad Academica de Amantes de Lima. Y en su nombre D. Jacinto Calero y Moreira. Lima: En la Imprenta Real de los Niños Huerfanos. 1791-94. 12 vols., 4to. C.

An important work, by a learned society at Lima, the object of which was to illustrate the topography and local history of Peru, as well as its arts, agriculture, mines, natural history, manners, etc. It is seldom found complete. "Some numbers have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same number, although the text runs on correctly. The last part of vol. xi. is number 382, yet the first of vol. xii. receives the number 583, from which the numeration proceeds to the end (No. 611), although nothing is deficient. The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements; it was suppressed by the Spanish government, as the enlightened opinions which the French Revolution had first set afloat were winning popularity amongst the educated youths of Spanish Peru. There is a sort of indignant bitterness in the title of the last volume which is stated to be "dado a luz por uno de los individuos de la Sociedad."—QUARITCH. See "N. A. Rev.," also "Ed. Rev.," ix. 433. Skinner's "Present State of Peru" is extracted from this work. It was reprinted with the following title:

"An answer to a tract [by W. Barron] entitled: 'An History of the Colonization of the Free States of Antiquity.' [See our No. 3644a.] The point labored at in the latter was to show that Great Britain was fully justified by the precedents. Sir William refutes the work, and shows the author to be totally mistaken in all his premises. Candour must allow that the 'Historical Remarks,' is not only a very learned but very able performance. It was never published. Only about thirty copies were printed, which the author gave away."—ALMON'S Anecdotes, I. 81. See also Walpole's "Correspondence," and Symond's "Remarks," 1778, p. 473.

This is the official account of the celebrated Genet affair. Rich 1. 386, quotes a long commendatory note from the "Monthly Review," xix. 103. The English reprint omits the documents which accompanied the message.

This is the first of a series of messages from the Presidents of the United States, which are, of course, important as State Papers illustrative of the history of the United States, and especially so of the individual views of each President. In the following list we purposely omit a majority of them, and enumerate only those which we consider worthy of special mention. Our list is chronological. Some are to be found under their respective subjects. The messages are usually followed by "Documents" illustrative of the subject of the message.

First series, 6 vols. Vol. 1. of this series contains the Diary of D. Gregorio Martin de Guijo, a Spanish lawyer residing in Mexico, comprising from the year 1648 to 1664. Vols. II. and III., the Diary of D. Ant. de Robles, 1665 to 1703. Vols. IV., V., and VI., the Diary of D. Jose Manuel de Castro Santa Anna, from 1752 to 1758; and Vol. VII., an Anonymous Diary from 1675 to 1696, and the Diary of Jose Gomez, from 1776 to 1798. The second series, 7 vols. (1854-55), contains a selection of various historical documents, one volume being entirely occupied by papers on the tumult of 1624, proceeding from a dispute between the Viceroy of Mexico and the Archbishop of that See. The third series, 1 vol., folio (1856), contains a selection of papers on the History, Chronology, and Mexican System of Astronomy; also on the Discovery and History of Texas and New Mexico. The fourth series, 7 vols. (1856-57), comprises materials for the history of Sonora and Sinaloa: History of "la Nueva Vizcaya" (Durango), and the History of the Missions in California, by Palou, etc. It is a most important series for the student of Mexican history. The publication of these documents reflects the highest credit upon the Mexican administration, as it places within the grasp of the scholar a body of information which no amount of individual enterprise and industry could possibly obtain. They were first published in the "Diario oficial," and form 17 vols., 8vo, 4to, and folio. See Berendt, in "Peterman's Mittheilungen," for August, 1856.

"Of this valuable work only twenty copies were printed, which had remained in ms. until the liberality of the unfortunate Maximilian allowed it to see the light in this limited form. It was prepared for the secret instruction of the Viceroy and his successors in the due administration of the government, to enable them to secure just imposition of taxes, the verification of revenue-receipts, and to control the entire financial system of the Mexican dominion. The Marquis de Sonora, better known as Don José de Galvez, is said by Aleman to have as it were created the 'Board of Trade' ministry in Mexico, and the historian goes even so far as to attribute all the material and commercial prosperity of the country to that statesman."—STEVENS. MICHHAUX (A.) Flora Boreali-Americana, sistens caracteres Plantarum quas in America Septentrionali collegit et detexit Andreas Michaux, ... Tabulis æneis 51 ornata. Typis Caroli Crapelet Parisiis & Argentorati, Apud fratres Levrault. Anno XI-1803. 2 vols., 4to, pp. x, (1), 330; (4), 340. 51 Plates. A., c.

Also on large vellum paper. The collation varies slightly in some copies. The work was republished with new titles only, Paris, 1820, and copies are sometimes made up of both issues. See also Brunet (O.), iii. 8754-55.

MICHHAUX. Histoire des Chênes de l'Amérique, ou Descriptions et Figures de toutes les espèces et variétés de Chênes de l'Amérique Septentrionale, Considérées sous les rapports de la Botanique, de leur culture et de leur usage. Par André Michaux, ... A Paris, de l'Imprimerie de Crapelet. An IX-1801. Folio, pp. (4), 7, (44). 36 Plates of Oaks by Redouté. A., B., c. 48691

Some copies are printed on fine paper.

MICHHAUX. Andreas Michaux Geschichte der Amerikanischen Eichen ... Uebersetzt und mit illuminirten Abbildungen begleitet von Hofr. und Prof. J. S. Kerner Stuttgart. 1802-4. 2 parts, 4to. 14 Plates, mostly colored. 48692

MICHAUX (F. A.) Histoire des Arbres Forestiers de l'Amérique Septentrionale, Considérées principalement sous les rapports de leur usage dans les Arts et de leur introduction dans le Commerce ... Par F^s. André-Michaux ... Paris, de l'Imprimerie de L. Haussmann et d'Hautel. M.D.CCC.X-XIII. 3 vols., fl. 8vo, pp. (8), 222, (1); (4), 280; (4), 408, (2). 145 Plates. C., p. 48693

Rich and two other catalogues say 156 plates. Some copies of this edition were printed in 4to, with the plates plain and colored, making four volumes. Indeed, the work has assumed so many variations both as to its titles and dates, as well in English as in French, that I can do no more than caution the buyer to carefully collate before buying, and remark that for beauty in the coloring of the plates the Paris editions are preferable, having been executed under the author's supervision. Some copies are complete in two volumes.

MICHAUX. The North American Sylva, or, A Description of the Forest Trees of the United States, Canada and Nova Scotia; ... To which is added a Description of the most useful of the European Forest Trees. Illustrated by 156 Coloured Engravings. Translated from the French of F. Andrew Michaux ... [by Augustus L. Hillhouse]. Paris: Printed by C. D'Hautel. 1819-18-19. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. (6), v, 268; (4), 247; (4), 285, (1). 156 Plates. C., H., p. 48694

Of the various editions with the text in English this, notwithstanding some typographical errors, is the best. Some copies of this edition were issued complete in two volumes, pp. (6), v, 383; (4), 417, (1). 156 Plates.

MICHAUX. The North American Sylva [as before]. Philadelphia: Thomas Dobson. 1817-19. 3 vols., imp. 8vo, pp. (4), xii, 268, (1); (4), 250; (4), 285, (1). 150 Plates. A., BA. † With Notes, by J. Jay Smith. Philadelphia: Robert P. Smith. 1850-51. 3 vols., imp. 8vo, pp. viii, 123; 128; (2), 143. 156 Plates. B. 48695

Reprinted in 1852, 1853, 1859, 1865, and other later dates, with collations which vary somewhat. The early editions are preferable. Rich, ii. 364, remarks: "In 1840, a new edition of the English translation was printed at New Harmony, on very bad paper, and with a worn out type, and, contrary to the intentions of Mr. Maclure, put at so high a price, that few copies were sold. Latterly, all the remaining copies were destroyed by a fire on the premises where they were stored." I have never seen a copy of this Indiana edition. For a continuation, see Nuttall (T.), which continuation is now always added by the publisher. Of the two works united, it is no exaggeration to remark that it is the most complete work of its kind, and is a production of unrivalled interest and beauty, giving descriptions and illustrations of all the forest trees of North America, from the arctic limits of arborescent vegetation to the confines of the tropical circle.

In the preface to those "Minutes," it is stated that they were "discovered (on the late capture of New York by the British troops) among the papers of a person who appears to have been Secretary to the Committee." They relate to a conspiracy, known as "the Hickey Plot," against Congress, and particularly against Washington, whom the conspirators proposed to carry off. "A Mr. Matthews," late Mayor of New York, says the Monthly Review, lvi. 232, "who was prominent in the conspiracy, was condemned to suffer death, but Congress resolved to postpone the execution of the sentence, and ordered him to be carried into Connecticut, there to be imprisoned till further orders." Hickey, the ringleader, and one of Washington's life-guards, was publicly executed in New York City. The work contains some curious scandal about Washington, and Mary Gibbons, "a girl from New Jersey, of whom General Washington was very fond, and whom he maintained genteelly at a house near Mr. Skinner's." It was reprinted as:

The order of "the Cincinnati" was considered inimical to American principles—and this rare piece gives the Count Mirabeau's views on the subject. "The language of the Count relating to the new order is animated and indignant, though clear and precise ; the translator frequently soars above him, and sometimes seems to be lost in the clouds into which he is raised."—Critical Review. The "Four Servants of God," are Jonathan Mitchel, John Higginson, William Stoughton, and Increase Mather. It was edited by Cotton Mather.

[MITCHEL.] Elijah's Mantle. | A Faithful | Testimony, | to |
New-England, | containing | I. The Great End and Interest of | New-England, Stated by the memo-|rable Mr. Jonathan
Mitchel, extrac-|ted from an Instrument of His, which|bears date, December 31. 1662. | II. The Cause of God and His |
People in New England; Stated in | a Sermon of the Memorable
| Mr. John Higginson, unto the General | Court of the Massa-
chuetts-Colony, May | 27. 1663. ... | III. New England's True
Interest, | further Declared, | in the Words of | the Hon. William
Stoughton, Esq; | in a Sermon preach'd by Him, | [in the Audience of the General | Court April, 1668.] when He was a |
Preacher of the Gospel at Dorchester: | From which he was called Successively | to many Stations of the highest | Figure in

The preface to the Boston edition, dated Feb. 26, 1713-14, announces that, "a scheme of a Bank of Credit, founded upon a Land Security, has been projected; and will be humbly offered to the Consideration of the General Assembly, at their next Session." The tract sets forth in a plain and familiar way, not only the nature, but the feasibility and utility of such a fund of credit. This seems to have been the first gun fired in the land bank war of 1714-21. For other works on this subject, see Vol. II., Nos. 6708-11.

Collation: Title, in alternate lines of red and black letters, with woodcut in the centre; reverse, a large woodcut filling the page, with the letters ibs in the centre; 6 prel. leaves; Text, 259 leaves; Colophon, 1 leaf.

The author, a native of Spain, was taken in early life to Mexico (1523), where he soon learnt the Mexican language, and even as a child he acted as interpreter between the first missionaries and the native Indians. He afterwards devoted his life to the propagation of useful knowledge in the Mexican language, and this first edition of his dictionary is one of the earliest books published in the new world, and is a work of such extreme rarity that it escaped the researches of Ludewig, who supposed Antonio's reference to it to be a mistake. The only perfect copy in the United States is in the Lenox Library; most of the other known copies lack the title and colophon. In cataloguing one Quaritch remarks "Only five other copies are believed to be extant; all of them imperfect," which remark must be taken cum grano salis.

MOLINA. Vocabulario | en lengua Castellana y Mexicana, com-|puesto por el muy Reuerendo Padre Fray Alonso de Molina, dela | Orden del bienauenturado nuestro Padre sant Francisco. | Dirigido al muy Excelente Senor | Don Martin Enriquez, Visorrey destanueua España. | En Mexico, | En Casa de Antonio de Spinosa. | 1571. | [Colophon:] Soli Deo honor et Gloria. | Aqvi hazen fin los dos vocabularios, en lengua Caste | llana y nabual o Mexicana que hizo y recopiló el muy Reuerendo padre, fray Alonso de Mo- | lina : de la orden de señor san Francisco. Imprimieronse en la muy insigne y gran ciudad | de Mexico : en casa de Antonio de Spinosa. enel Año de nuestra redēpcion. de. 1571. | Folio. J.C.B., c. 49867

Collation : 4 prel. leaves, Text, 121 leaves, and 1 leaf with printer's mark on the verso, being the first device used by a Mexican printer; followed by another title-page: "Vocabulario en lengua Mexicana y Castellana" (as above), 2 leaves, Text, 162 leaves.

This second and enlarged edition is so scarce that forty years ago Lord Kingsborough paid 50 guineas for it. The buyer should be careful to secure a copy with title-pages to both parts, for sometimes the first title-page being deficient the enterprise of a dealer induces him to put the second in its place, as it reads nearly the same; the woodcut, however, represents San Francisco, and differs from the escutcheon on the first title. Rich and other bibliographers erroneously supposed that this was the first book printed in America. M. L. Leon de Rosny, of Paris, announced a new edition, but it has not yet appeared.

MOLINA. Arte de la lengua Mexi-|cana y Castellana, compuesta por el muy Re-|uerendo padre fray Alonso de Mo-|lina de la orden de Señor | sant Francisco. | En Mexico en casa de Pedro Ocharte. 1571. Sm. 8vo. J.C.B., c. 49868

Collation : Title and "Epistola nuncupatoria," 3 leaves, Text, 82 leaves; Segunda parte, 35 leaves.

"This copy was purchased by the late Lord Kingsborough for 25*l.*, and it is the only one I can trace."—Note in one of Thomas Thorpe's catalogues. It is certainly a work of very great rarity.

MOLINA. Arte de la lengua Mexicana y Castellana, compuesta por el muy R. P. Fray Alonso de Molina, de la orden de Señor sant Francisco, de nuevo en esta segunda impression corregida, emendada y añadida, mas copiosa y clara que la primera. Dirigida al muy Excelente Señor Visorrey. &c. Mexico, en casa de Pedro Balli. 1576. Sm. 8vo. J.C.B. 49869

Collation : Title, License, and "Epistola," 7 leaves, Text, 112 leaves.

This second edition of Molina's Grammar is also very rare, being unknown to Antonio, Pinelo, Brunet, and Ludewig.

MOLINA. Confessionario breue, en lengua | Mexicana y Castellana : compuesto por el muy reuerēdo | padr efray [sic] Alonso de Molina, de la ordē del sera-|phico padre Sant Francisco. | En Mexico en casa de Antonio de Espinosa, Imp̃ssor. 1565. [Colophon:]

Acabose de imprimir este confessorio en xxvj de Henero. Año de 1565. 4to, 20 leaves. J.C.B. 49870

This extremely rare book is usually found bound up with the following :

MOLINA. Confessorio mayor, en lengua Mexicana y Castellana. | En Mexico, por Antonio de Espinosa. 1565. [Colophon:] *Acabose de impri-|mir este Confessorio, en la muy in-|signe y gran ciudad de Mexico: en casa de An-|tonio de Espinosa impressor de libros, jun-|ta a la yglesia de Señor Sant Augu-|stin: a quinze de Mayo. MOLINA. The Geographical, Natural and Civil History of Chili. Translated from the original Italian of the Abbe Don J. Ignatius Molina. To which are added, Notes from the Spanish and French Versions, and two Appendixes, by the English Editor; the first, an Account of the Archipelago of Chiloe, from the Description Historial of P. F. Pedro Gonzalez de Agueros; the second, an Account of the Native Tribes who inhabit the Southern extremity of South America, extracted chiefly from Falkner's Description of Patagonia. ... London: Longman. 1809. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xx, 321; xii, 385. Map. A., P. 49894

This translation is apparently a copy of the American edition of the preceding year, with a few alterations and some additions, but without any acknowledgment of the American original. The "Edinburgh Review" says the translator has leaned to the French version. The translators were Richard Alsop and William Shaler, Esq. "Excellent and full of information."—PINKERTON.

Black letter. The first edition in English, and is more rare than the following. Among other curious matter this volume states the medical properties of the "Gumme called Tacamahaca, the Oyle of the Figge-tree of Hell, Tobacco, Sassafras, Amber Gryse," etc.

[MONARDES.] Joyfull Newes|out of the new found world, at London, in Paules|Churchyard at the Sigue of the Quenes|Armes, by William Norton.|1580.* 4to, 3 leaves, 181 leaves, 2 leaves.

Contains three additional books, not in the former edition. It commences with a notice of Columbus' discovery, and among other curious matters contains a long article on tobacco. After folio 181, there is a second title which is sometimes substituted for the proper one when that has been lost. I have seen more than one English catalogue in which this fraud has been euphonized to read thus: "This is one of the copies with the variation in the title from that quoted by Lowndes;" a judicious buyer will reject such a copy as imperfect.

MONCKTON (R.) By Order of the Honourable Brigadier General Robert Monckton [n. p. n. d.] Folio, 1 leaf. P.

A proclamation for hire of wagons to transport stores.

MONCKTON. Proceedings of a General Court Martial, held at the Judge Advocate's Office, in the Horse-Guards, ... April 1764, for the Trial of a Charge preferred by Colin Campbell, Esq. against the Honourable Major General Monckton. London: James Robson. MDCCLXIV. 8vo, pp. 98. J.C.B. 49954

Relative to transactions in the Island of Martinique. The Court decided the charges to be entirely unsupported by evidence, and further, that the complaint was groundless, malicious, and scandalous in the highest degree. General Mockton was Governor of New York, 1762-63. He also served as Brigadier-General in the Expedition of General Wolfe against Quebec. See "Monthly Review," xxxi. 158.

[MONCRIEF (Major).] A Short Account of the Expedition against Quebec, commanded by Major-General Wolfe in the year 1759. By an Engineer upon that Expedition. With a Plan of the Town and Basin of Quebec, and part of the adjacent Country, showing the principal Encampments and Works of the British Army, and those of the French Army, during the Attack in 1759. MONCURE (R. C. L.) Argument of R. C. L. Moncure in Bank of Virginia vs. Adams. Fredericksburg. 1849. 8vo. P.

Monday Morning, December 27. 1773. The Tea-Ship having arrived, every Inhabitant, who wishes to preserve the Liberty of America, is desired to meet at the State-House, This Morning, precisely at Ten o'Clock, to advise what is best to be done on this alarming Crisis. [Philadelphia. 1773.] 12mo, 1 leaf. P.

Probably unique. This apparently trifling affair of one leaf is, in fact, the opening paragraph of the history of the American Revolution.

There never was such a person as the Count Mondidier; he is an imaginary individual, so called by Mr. Henry Stevens, who probably edited the catalogue which describes some of the rarest of books relating to America, many of which were purchased by Mr. Stevens and are included in his "Nuggets."

MONETTE (J. W.) History of the Discovery and Settlement of the Valley of the Mississippi, by the Three Great European Powers, Spain, France, and Great Britain, and the Subsequent Occupation, Settlement, and Extension of Civil Government by the United States, until the Year 1846. By John W. Monette, M.D. ... New York: Harper & Brothers. 1846. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxiii, 567; xv, 595. 3 Maps, 4 Plans and 2 Plates. A., BA. + [Ibid.] 1848. H. 49966

Includes a relation of the French and Spanish discovery of the territory, and the association of the colonial governments of these nations with the Indians, and their wars with the various tribes inhabiting it, and a narration of the Indian wars of the States bordering the Ohio. Probably the best of the numerous books on western history. It is now out of print and scarce.

Kneeland & T. Green*. 1731. 16mo, pp. 16. BA.

The author proposes that merchants and traders shall enter into copartnership for issuing bills or notes for circulation, to be loaned on land security, etc. He dwells on the bad effects that have resulted from giving currency in Massachusetts to Rhode Island bills: “We have given the bread out of our own mouths, and enrich’d them, who now despise us for so doing.”

In some copies the colophon ends with the word "priuilegio." Collation: Title, 1 leaf, "Tabula Cōmunis," (9) pages, "Montalboddo Fracan. al suo amicissimo Ioānmaria Anzolello Vicentino. S.," 1 page, Text, (120) leaves, Primo Libro to Libro Sexto, being signatures a to D in fours, the last leaf blank.

In crediting this very early collection of voyages to Montalboddo, I have followed the illustrious footsteps of Brunet, Grasse, HARRISSE, Tiraboschi, and other bibliographers. I am aware that Count Baldelli and others have ascribed it to Alessandro Zorzi, who probably did add some notes to a later edition. The subject of the authorship is discussed at length, and with much ability, in [HARRISSE] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 109. See also "Bulletin de la Société de Géographie," Paris, for October, 1857, Note x., page 312. Unlike most modern works, its contents exceed the promise of its title. It commences with the celebrated voyage of Alovise da Ca da Mosto in Ethiopia, etc., which appeared for the first time in this volume, followed by the voyage of de Cintra in 1462, of Vasco da Gama, 1497-1500, of Cabral in 1500-1501, of Columbus, 1492-1498, of Alonso Negro and the Penzons, of Vespucci, third voyage, 1501-1502, of Cortereal, 1500-1501, etc. Its great value to us, however, consists in its containing the voyages of Columbus and Vesputius. It has been frequently reprinted and translated, and serves to this day, in the Latin repertory of Huttich, as a trustworthy and interesting source of information. This first edition is particularly valuable, from the changes which were made in those which followed, and which are referred to by Mr. Biddle, in his "Life of Cabot." Ternaux, No. 11, refers to an edition, Vicenza, 1508, so also Brunet—probably an error as to date.

"This edition is said to be the best known, and hence more frequently referred to by early writers than any other."—J. R. BARTLETT. By a curious mistake, Faribault, No. 18, credits this to Jean Marie Angiadelo, which is apparently a misprint for Angiolelo. The words written hastily are very much alike. Montalboddo dedicated his work in 1507 to Giammaria Angiolelo, and, perhaps, the edition of 1519 has been attributed to Angiolelo by the blunder of some cataloguer ignorant of Italian. See Tiraboschi, 2^a ediz. moden., vii. 269.

Mr. Hanrott states that this edition, "though not so rare as the preceding (Nos. 50050 and 50051), contains more at the end." Per contra, Nodier (Catalogue of 1844, Part 1, No. 1042,) says that all the editions, except these two, "ont éprouvé, dans plusieurs endroits du texte, des altérations sensibles, et pour des causes particulières," while Brunet (Vol. v., col. 1159) calls this number a "simple réimpression de l'édition de 1517" (No. 50053).

This German translation is by Ruchamer, and is the first collection of voyages printed in that language. "We have seen a copy of the same date, which contains on the verso of the title, and immediately after the preface, a woodcut, representing a man, probably Ca da Mosta, kneeling before a king who is surrounded by a retinue of armed men, some of whom are mounted on an elephant. The table of contents is not reliable. The third book is therein called the second, the fourth is taken from the third. Chapters 80-90, 91-101, and 105-108, contain the first three voyages of Columbus; the fourth voyage is not inserted at all. This work is not as rare as the Italian and Latin versions."—[HARRISSE] Bib. Am. Vet., No. 57.

Collation: (10) leaves, Text, 88 leaves, the last erroneously marked LXXVIII. The last signature is N iii, followed by three unnumbered leaves.

Camus and Ebert say that there should be eleven preliminary leaves, but we have not found one with over ten. See [Harrisse] “Bib. Am. Vet.,” No. 58. This book is of excessive rarity. Bolton Corney’s copy sold for £137. It is a Latin translation of the “Paesi nouamente,” by Archangelo Madrignano, a Milanese monk. The map of Africa is the earliest known in which that continent is represented as surrounded by the ocean. After Columbus’ letters, this is the most important contribution to the early history of American discovery. The two leaves of Index give an analysis of the contents together with the names of the discoverers, while the text of the book runs on from chapter to chapter without distinction. The narratives of Columbus, Pinzon, and Vespucci, concerning America, begin on leaf 52 and end on 75. Quaritch’s catalogue remarks: “The eighth preliminary leaf ends with a metrical eulogium upon Madrignano by Quintianus Stoa. These verses close with a semicolon at the bottom of the reverse page, so that many persons have been led to think there ought to be some further preliminary matter in continuation of the iambs. But the semicolon is simply intended for a mark of interrogation, set at the end of a question in which the verses are brought to a conclusion and a climax thus:

‘An credis ergo dignior mortalibus
Sit qui labores superet et vivens deum?’”

Also on large paper. Sought for chiefly for its plates, especially for the engraved view of New Amsterdam which "is, without any doubt, the handsomest, and at the same time the most agreeable view of Dutch New York.—ASHER'S Bibliographical Essay, p. 23. The plates in the text are the same as those in the following translations, but are earlier and therefore better impressions, and represent the games, festivals, occupations, battles, religious rites, cannibalism, habitations, manners and customs of the Indians.

This German translation is much scarcer than the Dutch original. Asher says that he had met with only one copy in the Netherlands, viz. that in the Royal Library of the Hague. This publication is, besides, a specimen of the most impudent plagiarism, the translator O. Dapper calling himself the author and concealing the real author's name. It forms part of Dr. O. D[apper]'s collection of voyages, or descriptions of foreign countries.

[MONTANUS.] America: | being an | Accurate Description | of the | New World; | containing | The Original of the Inhabitants; the Remarkable | Voyages thither: | The Conquest of the vast
 Empires | of | Mexico and Peru, | Their ancient and later Wars. |
 With their several | Plantations, | Many, and Rich Islands; | Their
 Cities, Fortresses, Towns, Temples, | Mountains, and Rivers: |
 Their Habits, Customs, Manners, and Religions, | their Peculiar Plants, Beasts, Birds, and Serpents. | Collected and Translated from most Authentick Authors, | And Augmented with later
 Observations; | Illustrated with Notes, and Adorn'd with peculiar

Maps, and Proper Sculptures, | By John Ogilby, Esq; | ... | London: | Printed by Tho. Johnson for the Author M.DC.LXX. Folio, pp. (6), 629. Plates, Maps and Plans. H. 50088

Another issue has the following title :

[MONTANUS.] America :|being the Latest, and most|Accurate Description|of the|New World ;|containing|The Original of the Inhabitants, and the Re-|markable Voyages thither. |The Conquest of the Vast|Empires|of|Mexico and Peru,|and other Large|Provinces and Territories,|with the several European|Plantations|in those Parts. |Also|Their Cities, Fortresses, Towns, Temples,|Mountains, and Rivers. |Their Habits, Customs, Manners, and Religions. |Their Plants, Beasts, Birds, and Serpents. |With|An Appendix, containing, besides several other considerable|Additions, a brief Survey of what hath been discover'd of the|Unknown South-Land and the Arctick Region. |Collected from most Authentick Authors, Augmented with later Observations, and|Adorn'd with Maps and Sculptures,|By John Ogilby, Esq; London: | Printed by the Author, and are to be had at his House in |White Fryers. M.DC.LXXI. Folio, pp. (10), 674, (1). 65 Plates, 6 Portraits, 30 folded Views and 19 Maps. B., BA.

Also on large paper. This English translation is, like Dapper's, "an impudent plagiarism" from Montanus, plates included. The plates include portraits of Columbus, Vesputius, Magellan, etc. Ogilby may be considered the English De Bry. His works are similar in their objects, compilation, and mode of illustration.

MONTCALM. Lettres de Monsieur Le Marquis de Montcalm, Gouverneur-General en Canada ; a Messieurs de Berryer & de la Molé. Ecrites dans les Années 1757, 1758, & 1759. Avec une Version Angloise. A Londres: J. Almon. M.DCC.LXXVII. 8vo, pp. (2), 28 bis. H. 50091

The English title reads: "Letters from the Marquis de Montcalm, Governor-General of Canada ; to Messrs. De Berryer & De la Molé, In the Years 1757, 1758, and 1759. With an English Translation." ... London: J. Almon. M.DCC.LXXVII.

French and English on opposite pages. These letters, purporting to have been written by so distinguished a man as the Governor General of Canada, the last of them but a few days before the fall of Quebec and the death of both Generals Montcalm and Wolfe, have attracted great interest, while their genuineness has been suspected. But "it has been reserved," says Mr. Henry Stevens in an extended note on the subject, "for Mr. Francis Parkman, the historian, in 1869, to settle almost to a demonstration that the Montcalm letters are forgeries." See Mr. Stevens's long and exceedingly interesting note on this scarce work, in his "Bibliotheca Historica," also "Monthly Review," lvi. 306. See also [Martin (Felix)], xi. 44868.

Año de 1658.* | 4to, Engraved Title, pp. (52), 192, (40). Map. H. 50106

A very rare and precious volume. It contains an account of the expulsion of the buccaners from the Island of Tortuga, with a separate title-page. The map represents the attack on the Island of Tortuga, also St. Domingo, Cuba, and Jamaica. The title of this work is not given by Pinelo, who mentions a narrative of the Island of Tortuga, by this author, printed in 1654, folio, and reprinted in his "Tratado de las presas maritimas," 1658, 4to, which is probably the work enumerated above. Brunet cites the book after Salva and Antonio. The last-mentioned gives the title as follows: "Investigacion del origin, y privilegios de los ricos hombres, o nobles Cavalleros Infanzones, o hijosdalgo y señores de vasallos de Aragon, y del absoluto poder que en ellos tienen. Parte primera, Discurso politico Mexico 1658, typis Jeanniz Ruiz." 4to, which is perhaps the same as our No. 50111. Salva quotes the title as Antonio, but under the date of 1664.

Perhaps a part of our No. 4419. There is a continuation to 1786. [Harrisse] "Bib. Am. Vet.," p. 395, credits this to J. F. de Montemayor y Cordova. See also "Sumario."

The Monthly Review: or, Literary Journal: Volume 1.
London. M,DCC,XLIX. 8vo. B., BA., C. 50198

Continued to 1845, 249 volumes. The most valuable existing record of contemporary literature for nearly a century, replete with the most important events; embracing the whole period of the American Revolution, it chronicles every production of the press connected with the subject, many of which, indeed, are only known to have existed from its pages. It is constantly referred to by Mr. Rich in his "Bibliotheca Americana," and by myself in this Dictionary, for particulars of works relating to this country. The Indexes by S. Ayscough, etc., London, 1786-96 and 1818, form 5 vols., 8vo, and should always accompany a set of the work. During the American Revolution, it was edited by a Dr. Bancroft, who is said to have resided in America several years. The bias of most of its criticism is American, without being disloyal to Great Britain.

The principal poems in this collection were written during his stay in America—suggested by the character and manners of the people. Henry Stevens remarks “His own youthful importance seems to have been dwarfed for the first time in his life by Niagara, and hence his dislike to the whole country. He was nowhere properly appreciated, not even in Washington, with its Tiber, and streets of magnificent distances, but in Canada he stood on his own soil [dirt] and threw it, and felt happier. Some of his finer poems, as, for instance, the “Canadian Boat Song,” are in this volume, but they are so mixed up with Tom Moore unrefined, that the volume as a whole is an unfortunate monument to the great Irish poet.” The publication of this volume elicited:

“The Tierra de Guerra of the time of Las Casas remained for three centuries not only the Land of War, but the land of mystery. A vast tract of territory in Guatemala, inhabited by the fierce Itzas and Locandons, whose wars are recorded by Villagutierre, was for the first time visited by a peaceful traveler in 1846. The adventurous Frenchman, whose literary thirst impelled him to explore this mysterious country, recorded his observations in a manner which entitles them to more credence than could be fairly claimed by many of his countrymen.”—FIELD. Folio, Title, Dedication, etc., 4 leaves, Text, A to LLL, in fours, unpagcd. P. 50634

The earliest Welsh Concordance to the Bible. It was composed by the author while he was a minister in Monmouthshire. He took the manuscript with him to America about 1711. It served as the basis to Peter Williams' concordance, printed at Carmarthen, by J. Ross, in 1773. One of the preliminary pieces is signed John Cadwalader, Philadelphia, 1730. David Harry was Keimer's apprentice. He bought Keimer out in July, 1729, and during the year 1730, followed him to Barbados. This is one of the few works he printed, and is very rare.

Among the poems contained in this collection occurs the famous one entitled "Billy Pitt and the Farmer," narrating the adventures which befell "Billy," "Britannia's Prime Ruler," and "Harry, a staunch friend to Boston," as they were returning on a dark night from a cabinet meeting, with their "Skins full of wine." The poem ends with this oft-quoted stanza :

"Solid Men of Boston Make no long orations ;
Solid men of Boston Banish strong Potations ;
Solid men of Boston Go to bed at sundown,
And never lose your way, Like the loggerheads of London."

The Address "To the Reader," is signed "John Higginson. Thomas Thacher." Concerning the extreme rarity of the first edition of this important work, it will be sufficient to remark, that we know of but three perfect copies in the United States, the last five leaves, "A Brief Chronological Table," are often wanting. "Morton's Memorial is a work of high authority and is confined chiefly to Plymouth Colony. It was compiled principally from manuscripts of his uncle William Bradford, and comprises the period between 1620 and 1646. The journals of Edward Winslow also furnished materials for the work."—J. MORTON (T.) New English Canaan | or | New Canaan. | Containing an Abstract of New England, | Composed in three Bookes. | The first Booke setting forth the originall of the Natives, their | Manners and Customes, together with their tractable Nature and | Love towards the English. | The second Booke setting forth the naturall Indowments of the | Country, and what staple Commodities it | yealdeth. | The third Booke setting forth, what people are planted there, | their prosperity, what remarkable accidents have happened since the first | planting of it, together with their Tenents and practise | of their Church. | Written by Thomas Morton, of Clifford's Inne gent, upon tenne | yeares knowledge and experiment of the | Country. | Printed at Amsterdam, | By Jacob Frederick Stam. | In the year 1637. | 4to, pp. 188, (3). 51028

A book of such rarity that Mr. Frederik Muller, the eminent bookseller of Amsterdam, remarks: "Although this book is printed in my native place, Amsterdam, I have never seen nor heard of it here." It is interspersed with poems by various authors, including one by Ben Jonson not published in his works. Its author, who appears to have possessed a jovial, and somewhat roystering temperament, found himself ill associated with the puritanical founders of New England. There is more than a little bibliographical uncertainty about this book. In the first place, the catalogue of the so-called Mondidier collection gives the imprint, Printed by W. S. Stansby for Rob. Blount, 1625, while Peter Force's reprint gives the imprint, Printed by Charles Green, 1632; whereas the book itself relates events sequent to that date (1632); and never having met the book except with the Amsterdam imprint, I content myself with the remark that I suppose that the other titles are erroneous, and a careful examination of the work inclines me to coincide with Mr. Duyckinck, in his remark, "that although the book professes to have been printed at Amsterdam, it was probably executed in London." Peter Force has probably copied White Kennett's catalogue, and the Mondidier copy had a ms. title, which may have been incorrectly copied. Allen remarks that Morton "fell into great licentiousness, and became the lord of misrule;" he supplied the Indians with arms, that they might hunt for him, and was by this means, perhaps, an instrument in endangering the safety of the colonists. On the occasion of giving to Pasonage's name of Maremont, under his auspices, a pine-tree eighty feet in height, with buck's horns at the top, was planted in the ground, around which the company danced with such hilarity, as the good cheer they had not failed to provide inspired; much to the dissatisfaction of the stricter colonists, by whom he was for this offense sent out of the colony as a prisoner. The following is the sentence of the Court of Massachusetts, 7th of September, 1630: "It is ordered by this Court that Thomas Morton at Mount Wollaston should presently be sett into the bilbowes & after sent prisoner unto England by the ship called the Gift now returning thither, that all his goods shall be seized upon to defray the charges of his transportation, payment of his debts, or to give satisfaction to the Indians for a canoe he unjustly took away from them, and that his house, after the goods are taken out, shall be burnt down to the ground." Morton returned to the colonies after the publication of this book and was imprisoned in Boston for a year, ostensibly on account of the libel it promulgated against the colonies. For a reprint, see Force's "Tracts," n. 5.

This volume only reaches to the year 1500. The continuation never appeared in print, as it was prohibited by the Spanish government, being too enlightened and truthful. The work is principally compiled from original mss. in the archives of Spain and Portugal, and is preceded by a valuable critical review of the various writers on the subject. The manuscript of the second volume is in the library of the late Mr. George Brinley.

MUÑOZ. Memoria sobre las Apariciones y el Culto de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe de Mejico, leida en la Real Academia de la Historia por su individuo supermerario Don Juan Bautista Muñoz. Madrid. 1794. 4to. 51347

The history of this patron saint is a most important part of the history of Mexico. It has been believed that the Virgin appeared several times to the Indian, Juan Diego, in 1531, on the barren hill of Tepeyac, with the object of convincing him and the Archbishop Zumaraga of the reality of her presence, and the necessity of having a sanctuary built for her worship. She at last prevailed, by sending to the archbishop, Juan Diego, with his ayate full of roses, and her own image stamped on this same cloth. The temples and cloister which were built are famous for their immense treasure. But the historian, Muñoz, declares in this paper that he has had access to a multitude of letters of Zumaraga, and other documents, from which it is certain that these miraculous appearances were not mentioned until a century or two afterwards; although the image is referred to, but not as having any special merit. Only in 1737 was this saint declared patrona principal of the city of Mexico; and in 1747, of the whole of New Spain. Muñoz begins as follows, which sounds like Martin Luther: "With the death of the Apostles and Evangelists, the canon of the Sacred Scriptures, and the deposit of the dogmas of our holy religion was closed. No subsequent deed or doctrine, since this was not contained nor announced in the divine books, nor in the apostolic traditions, can ever augment the number of the articles of the Christian faith—of that faith and belief without which it is impossible to please God." The high reputation of the royal historian, and his declaration that the miraculous origin of Guadalupe was a pious fraud, when it was first known in Mexico, in 1818, roused a terrible storm. It first appeared in the "Academia de la Historia." For a reply, see Guridi Alcocer (J. M.), vii. 29289.

Collation: Title, one leaf, on reverse of which is a portrait of Munster, pp. 9, Catalogue of Authors, (1), Index, (12), 14 Maps, Text, pp. 1162, (2).

Pages 1099-1113 contain "De novis insulis, quomodo, quando & per quem illæ inuentæ sint." Mr. Leahy, in Quaritch's catalogue, erroneously calls this the first Latin edition. It is the first which gave large plans of cities. The last map is "Tabula novarum Insularum quas diversis respectibus Occidentales et Indianas vocant." It occupies the entire face of two pages, and contains a respectable delineation of the Continent (although Yucatan becomes an island) from Francisca (or Canada) on the North to the Tierra del Fuego on the South. Page 33 has a chapter on the recent great voyages of discovery. The woodcuts were engraved by R. Manuel Deutsch, an artist of considerable merit; see Strutt's "Dictionary of Engravers." The "Athenae Rauricae" (p. 24) mentions two other Latin editions, 1543 and 1545.

The fourteenth map is entitled "Tabula nouarum Insularum [sic] quas diuersi respectibus Occidentales & Indianas uocant." On the South American Continent, the words "Die Nüw Welt" appear in large type—the only German on the map, an indication of its use in the editions in that language.

MUNSTER. Cosmographiae Universalis Basileae. 1559. Folio. 51382

"This Latin edition differs considerably from the German editions of 1553 and 1564. The description of America (pp. 1099-1113) is quite different, and more ample, embracing for instance the voyages of Vespucius, Magallanes, etc.; the woodcuts of this part are partly different. The maps are the same."—F. MULLER.

Collation: Title, Dedication, (5) leaves, Index, (88) leaves, 19 Maps, Text, pp. 1333, Colophon, 1 leaf. Some copies have 22 Maps.

The last map, in some copies, is the same as that in the edition of 1554, with a few additional names. The plan of Cuzco, in Peru, and the map of Cuba, appear for the first time in this edition. Some passages which had been objected to by the Catholics, are omitted. See "Crenii Animadver.," VIII. 94.

MUNSTER. Cosmographia. Beschreibung aller Lender. Basel [durch Henrichum Petri?] M.DXLI. Folio. 51384

Title from the Labanoff catalogue as cited by HARRISSE. Ebert conjectures that the date should be 1544. See the following.

Ebert, No. 14500, says "This edition is the best for the admirers of ancient good woodcuts, on account of the views of towns being added to it for the first time. That of 1541, mentioned in Aretin's 'Litt. Handb. für die baier. Gesch.' t. 142, is, perhaps, only a typographical error, instead of 1544, as the author says, in his dedication of 1544, that he had been for two years before occupied with this work." In black letter, and of extreme rarity. Munster's Cosmography is interesting as well for the text as for the profusion of curious and spirited woodcuts by which it is illustrated; as an exhibition of the progress of geographical discovery it is indispensable. See also Ptolemy.

"In this purple book the 'nephew of my uncle' defends and upholds negro slavery in America, though perhaps, were it brought nearer home to his own business and bosom, like many other philosophers, he would have sung a different tune. Lest these sentiments, so repugnant to British feeling, might give to the book a baleful influence, a neutralizing appendage by another hand is added, combating the Prince's facts, inferences and opinions."—STEVENS. In some copies the title reads "The United States of North America."

MURATORI (L. A.) Il Christianesimo Felice nelle Missioni de' Padre della Compagnia di Gesù nel Paraguai, descritto da Lodovico Antonio Muratori Bibliotecario del Sereniss. Sig. The history of the Missions of the Jesuits in Paraguay, where they exerted an extraordinary influence and obtained almost supreme power, is full of interest. Most books on the subject are written by members of the order; but the fact that Muratori was not a Jesuit, has given his history a character for impartiality, not claimed for other authors. It was composed in great part from documents written by various Jesuit missionaries and travelers, furnished to Muratori by Father Gaetan Cattanio, a missionary in Paraguay. See "Monthly Review," xxiii. 328.

This volume relates to the claim of Martin Behaim to the discovery of America. The author was one of the most learned geographers, and the very best chart-maker, of his age (1430-1506). But these, his real and great merits, have not satisfied certain writers, who, moved by the prejudices of country, or a love of contradiction and paradox, insist that Behaim, and not Columbus, was the discoverer of America. Cellarius and Riccioli both say that he visited the American continent and the Strait of Magelhaens, but Stuvinius appears to have been the first to give great importance to this statement; asserting in his treatise, "De vero Novi Orbis Inventore," that Behaim had accurately traced on his globe preserved at Nürnberg the islands of America, and even the Strait of Magelhaens. Prof. Tozen combated this assertion as far back as 1761, and for a quarter of a century the theory was laid aside as untenable.

The editor was not only a ripe scholar, but an accomplished linguist. In regard to matters connected with the Indian languages, and among them of the Amaran, the Chilian, the Brazilian, the Paraguayan, Californian, Quichen, and Yungan tribes, spread at the time chiefly over South and Western America, from which the German Jesuit Fathers had just been expelled on the suppression of their Order in 1773 by Pope Ganganelli. The editor gives besides much curious and interesting matter connected with those portions of America, derived from authentic sources.

MURRAY. Travels in North America during the years 1834, 1835, & 1836. Including a Summer Residence with the Pawnee Tribe of Indians, in the Remote Prairies of Missouri, and a Visit to Cuba and the Azore Islands. By the Hon. Charles Augustus Murray London: Richard Bentley. 1839. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xvi, 473; x, 372. 2 Plates. C. 51490

This is the first and best edition of a most interesting work, by an intelligent observer of the peculiarities of the Pawnees, before they had been modified by contact with the whites. His departure from St. Louis, and first encounter with the Pawnees, is narrated in chap. xii. of vol. 1., and through the remainder of the volume (pp. 235 to 460, and pp. 1 to 96 of vol. 2.) we follow him with unabated interest in his narration of his adventures during a three months' tour in the Indian territory. There is little of scientific value in his narrative, but it possesses a more than common charm in the vividness of his relation.

MURRAY. An Impartial | History | of the Present | War in America; | containing | An Account of its Rise and Progress, | The Political Springs thereof, | with its various | Successes and Disappointments, | on Both Sides. | By the Rev. James Murray, of Newcastle. | ... | Newcastle upon Tyne: Printed for T. Robson. [1778-1780.] 3 vols., 8vo, pp. iv, 573; 576; 332. 31 Portraits, Plates and Map. 51505

This first edition was published in numbers, in blue wrappers. The title of Vol. II. differs. The title of Vol. III., after "The Political Springs," reads: "Of the War now carrying on between Great Britain And the United Powers of France, Spain, and America." This third volume ends abruptly at page 332, and is of extreme scarcity.

MURRAY. An Impartial History of the Present War in America [as before]. Newcastle upon Tyne: T. Robson. [1780.] 3 vols., 8vo, pp. iv, 573; 576; 332. 23 Portraits, 25 Plates, 3 Maps and Plan. 51506

There is no date on the title of this edition, but the dedication to the king is dated December 12, 1780. The third volume terminates with the word "enjoying," without finishing the chapter or even the sentence.

The bibliography of this work is somewhat complicated. Some copies have no mention of more than one volume on the title, and for an imprint, London: R. Baldwin. [1778.] 8vo, pp. iv, 573. Copies with the Newcastle imprint exist, dated 1779, 1781, 1782, 1784. Our No. 34376 is, perhaps, the same work. The edition which most frequently appears has the following title:

MURRAY. An Impartial History of the War in America; From its first Commencement, to the present Time; Together With the Charters of the several Colonies, and other Authentic Information. Likewise, The Rise, Progress, and Political Springs of the War now carrying on between Great-Britain, And the United Powers of France, Spain, Holland, and America; With a particular Account of the several Engagements both by Sea and Land. By the Rev. James Murray, of Newcastle, Assisted by several Gentlemen of Eminence in Europe, and the Continent of America. Newcastle upon Tyne: T. Robson. [n. d.] 2 vols., 8vo, pp. iv, 573; 576. 24 Portraits and Map. 51507

The author's political principles were democratic in sentiment, and it is a little doubtful whether his history is "impartial." It is mainly sought for on account of the portraits, the quality of which differs in the different editions to a very great degree.

Collation: Title, Dedication, and Preface, 3 leaves, Text, pp. 136, Colophon, 1 page; 4 diagrams with moving figures, in the text. Preceding Part II., which begins at page 61, is a folded map.

The author was a Maltese by birth, but resided at Ratisbon as a commander of the order of St. John. He seems to have been one of the latest geographers who, in order to reconcile the new discoveries with the original theories, calls the northwestern portion of America, India Orientalis, and places no ocean between the continents of Asia and America. Chapters xx. and xxi. relate to the New World. At the end of the volume is a poem addressed to the author by Edmund Hollyng, M.D., an Englishman at Ingoldstadt. There are copies on large paper.

This further address of complaint to the States General, on the part of the governors of the West India Company, respecting the unlawful and scandalous proceedings of the English in New Netherland, is "one of the most interesting pamphlets that has come down to us, in which the reciprocal position of the East and West India Companies are marked with great precision. It says, that the Dutch government, in which the directors of the East India Company fill the most important places, will feel thankful to England for having disembarassed it of the rival company," etc. A complete English translation of the part relating to New Netherland may be found in Asher's "Bibliographical Essay," No. 341, pp. 210-213.

A book of such excessive rarity that even Señor J. G. Icazbalceta is only able to describe an imperfect copy. Pimentel, in his "Cuadro descriptivo y comparativo de las Lenguas Indigenas de Mexico," remarks: "Ha sido tan pobre de escritores el idioma mazahua que, segun creo, no se ha escrito sobre él mas que una doctrina, precedida de algunas breves noticias gramaticales, por el Lic. Diego de Nájera Yanguas. Esta obrita es tan ezcasa que no he logrado ver mas que un solo ejemplar, trunco, faltándole una hoja de la parte mas importante, que son las noticias gramaticales. Despues de algunos años de poseer ese ejemplar, y habiendo perdido las esperanza de encontrar otro, me veo obligado à sacar de él las pocas noticias que pongo à Continuacion." Not included in Adelung's "Mithridates." Trübner prices a copy £25.

NARRAGANSETT INDIANS A Declaration of Former Passages and Proceedings betwixt the English and the Narragansets, with their confederates, Wherin the grounds and justice of the ensuing warre are opened and cleared. Published, by order of the Commissioners for the united Colonies: At Boston the 11 of the sixth month 1645. [Cambridge: Stephen Daye. 1645.] 4to, pp. 7. 51774

One of the earliest productions of the Cambridge press; the third, in order of time, of which any copy is extant—preceded only by the Bay Psalm Book and the list of theses at the commencement of Harvard College, in 1643. This Declaration of War against the Narragansets is subscribed by "Jo: Winthrop President, In the name of all the Commissioners," etc. Hutchinson, who printed it, in his "Collection of Papers" (138-146) from a manuscript copy, had "never met with it in print." It was again printed, from the ms. Records of the Commissioners (with many errors), in Hazard's "Collection," ii. 45-48. The following entry, in an "Account of Expenses layd out for the County," Aug. 1645 to Oct. 1646 ("Mass. Archives," xxx. doc. 9), shows the number of copies printed: "First, for ye printing of five hundred Declarations, 4l. 00. 00." Of the five hundred, Mr. Brinley's was the only known copy, and that sold for $215. Corrected title of our No. 45706, Vol. xi.

Nathan to Lord North. ... London: G. Wilkie. MDCCLXXX. 8vo, pp. (4), 59. H. 51899

Censures Lord North with great severity. The writer calls himself "a native of that unhappy country which his Lordship has ruined, and one of the wretches which his Lordship's politics have cursed beyond the power of salvation." "To shew the arch-fiend in his proper diabolical shape," adds the writer, "to procure your removal from the ear of Majesty, where you have been too long squat like a toad, inspiring venom, would give me the greatest pleasure."

A., B., C. 52098

There are copies on large paper. Vols. i. and ii. were reprinted in 1858. Mr. Rich (Vol. ii., p. 179,) devotes almost a page of encomium to this valuable work. Brunet characterizes it as an "importante collection," and Washington Irving drew from it most of the material which forms the basis of his "Life of Columbus." It contains the original diary of the voyages of Columbus, compiled by B. de las Casas, the expeditions of Amerigo Vespucci, and the subsequent voyages of the Spaniards, taken from inedited manuscripts or reprinted from rare printed works; also many singular and curious documents concerning the history and manners of the period. It may safely be asserted that the enterprise of this laborious compiler has rescued from oblivion the earliest and rarest records of American discovery. For a list of the contents, see Leclerc's Catalogue.

NAVARRETE. Coleccion de Documentos Inéditos para la Historia de España; por Don Martin Fernandez Navarrete, Don Miguel Salvá y Don Pedro Sainz de Baranda. Madrid: Viuda de Calero. 1842-73. 59 vols., sm. 4to. Portraits and Facsimiles.

Vols. vi.-lix. were edited by M. Salvá and other members of the "Academia de la Historia." This very valuable collection of documents is of much importance for the history of the Spanish-American possessions, as they contain many valuable papers relative to Columbus, Cortez, Pizarro, etc., which have not been printed elsewhere.

The translators had the advantage of having their labor revised by the original compiler. The chief members of the Geographical Society of Paris took an active interest in it, and Messieurs Rémusat, Balbi, le baron Cuvier, Jomard, Labouderie, Letronne, de Rosset, Saint-Martin, Walckenaer, Humboldt, etc., added notes and explanations, so that, on the whole, the work is a most valuable companion for the student of the original Spanish. Gov. Hutchinson says this is little more than an abridgment of Mather's "Magnalia." Thomas Prince thus speaks of this work: "In 1720 came out Mr. Neal's 'History of New-England,' which I was glad to see, and pleased with both his spirit, style and method. And though he has fallen into many mistakes which are commonly known to us, some of which he seems to derive from Mr. Oldmixon's New England; ... yet considering the materials this worthy writer was confined to, and that he was never here; it seems to me scarce possible, that any under his disadvantages should form a better."—Chronology of New England, Pref. p. iii.

NEDERLAND. Aan het Volk van Nederland. [Signed:] Ostende, 3 Sept. 1781. 8vo, pp. 76. 52219

This violent pamphlet against the house of Orange caused such scandal, that by the States General a reward of 14,000 florins was offered to the discoverer of the author, but in vain. Most probably it is written by the advocate F. A. v. d. Kemp. It is highly interesting for the history of that time and of the American war.
